

New and Noteworthy at the Center for Christian Growth (formerly known as the Resource Center)

Friends, we have lots of new books for children, adult programs, and spiritual growth. Stop by any time Mondays through Thursdays from 10AM to 3PM. Call ahead to make arrangements 631-0979 to meet later in the day. We will be closed from Monday, December 23, 2019 through Friday, January 3, 2020. We will reopen on Monday, January 6, 2020.

New, Old Books

In the category of new, old books, Rachel Held Evans has written the foreword for Madeleine L'Engle's Genesis complete with Reader's Guide with questions for group discussions. This trilogy includes And It was Good; A Stone for A Pillow and Sold into Egypt. Printed in the 1980's consider either rereading or discovering these books for the first time. One or more of L'Engle's books can be used for book clubs or study groups. The insights and view of our world contained in these classic books offers both individuals and groups substantial food for thought and for discussion.

In the Category of How to Books

A recent acquisition is a six volume series from Sharon Ely Pearson entitled Faithful Celebrations. Pearson offers recipes, stories and craft ideas for each season in the liturgical year. Included in these volumes are high festivals like Christmas and Easter along with volumes designed simply for seasons or times with friends. These books are great resources for churches, church schools and for parents.